

Upcoming Events

- Th. Oct 17, 2:15-3:30, Student Center West 466/468 – “The Costs of Higher Education – Ethical and Policy Dimensions.” Panel discussion featuring local experts.
- Mon Oct 21, 6:00-9:00, Lofts Learning Center – Ethics-in-film and pizza – screening of “Beyond the Gates.”
- Mon Oct 28, 2:00-3:15, 25 Park Place NE, 16th floor conference room: mock ethics bowl featuring the GSU Ethics Bowl Team.
- Tues Nov 5, 4:30-6:00, Student Center East 203, Civil Discourse Forum meeting: topic “Climate Change.”
- Wed Nov 6, 2:00-3:15, 25 Park Place NE, 16th floor conference room: mock ethics bowl featuring the GSU Ethics Bowl Team.
- Wed Nov. 13, 2:00-3:15, 25 Park Place NE, 16th floor conference room: mock ethics bowl featuring the GSU Ethics Bowl Team.
- Mon Nov 18, 2:00-3:15, Student Center East 216, “Ethics, Risk, and Climate Change” – panel discussion featuring Prof. Danny Shahar (Univ. of New Orleans) and Prof. Mindy Goldstein (Emory).
- 2019-2020 Troy Moore Undergraduate Ethics Essay contest – submissions due January 17, 2020 – check <https://ethics.gsu.edu/students/troymore-contest/> for details.
- Wed Jan 29, 2020: Lunch with Interesting People: Rabbi Joshua Lesser, Congregation Bet Haverim. Check ethics.gsu.edu for details later this year.
- Mon March 23, 2020, presentation by Prof. Robin Dembroff (philosophy, Yale University). Check ethics.gsu.edu for details in early 2020.
- Recurring: first Tuesday of every month, Civil Discourse Forum meeting, Student Center East 203, 4:30-6:00

Philosophy, Politics and Economics program at GSU - philosophy.gsu.edu/home/ppe/
Phi Sigma Tau Zeta (GA)
Center for Ethics Student Forum
Civil Discourse Forum
Department of Philosophy

RACE, PRIVILEGE, AND SPEECH: A CONVERSATION.

DATE: WED OCT 16, 2019
TIME: 3:30-4:45
PLACE: DAHLBERG
HALL, IN THE VETERANS MEMORIAL ROOM.

Lorenzo D. Murphy

Compton Politics

Growing up as a highly recruited football player at Taft High School; Lorenzo chose to take another route instead. Getting involved in the street life South Los Angeles had to offer, Lorenzo soon realized he went down a dead end road. After paying his dues to society, he has made a commitment to right his wrongs, and the wrongs of people and families in various communities across the nation. Lorenzo has dedicated his every waking moment to empower youth across the world. He founded an organization known as “Trip El OGOGOG”, doing significant work various communities, and has made measureable strides in reaching his goal of bringing awareness to at-risk youth. Trip El OGOGOG targets in on young adults to address the difficulties and challenges they face, and strategize to help them foster good decision making techniques. Lorenzo incorporates preventative measures for those who have been afflicted with at-risk factors in the home and in school. He has positively impacted the lives of many young people by developing systematic plans to inspire them to become productive members of their communities. Mr. Murphy also incorporates intervention programs that identify effective strategies that help to keep the youth grounded, and lead them to the path of success.

Evan Chase

Chair, Fostering Hope LA

Evan grew up on the upper side of town through much of his younger years, but left his comfortable surroundings after High School for California to seek out his own success. Success in California did begin to blossom after several years of struggle, but a turn of events led him into Christian ministry and getting a degree in Pastoral Leadership in 2000. Over the past 25 years Evan has pastored at two local churches and has had the distinct honor to preach in many pulpits throughout California. In addition to his Pastoral work he has built two non-profits focused in church unity and helping at risk youth and the poor. Evan has also spent many years working in politics, elected to lead his area as a grass roots community organizer in 2014, and is currently taking his spiritual, political, and community experience on the road to college campus as a speaker with Better Angels helping to help depolarize America.

Today's speakers are allies of Better Angels, an organization dedicated to fostering civil dialogue. See <https://www.better-angels.org/>.

If you are interested in local efforts to bring a Better Angels workshop to GSU, contact Andrew Jason Cohen at cohenaj@gsu.edu.

Today's moderators:

- Andrew I. Cohen, Associate Professor of Philosophy and Director of the Jean Beer Blumenfeld Center for Ethics: <http://ethics.gsu.edu/>
- Andrew Jason Cohen, Professor of Philosophy, Founding Coordinator, BIS Program in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics: <https://philosophy.gsu.edu/home/ppe/>