

FALL 2020: ETHICS AND THE 2020 ELECTIONS

POLITICAL PROTEST AND THE 2020 ELECTIONS

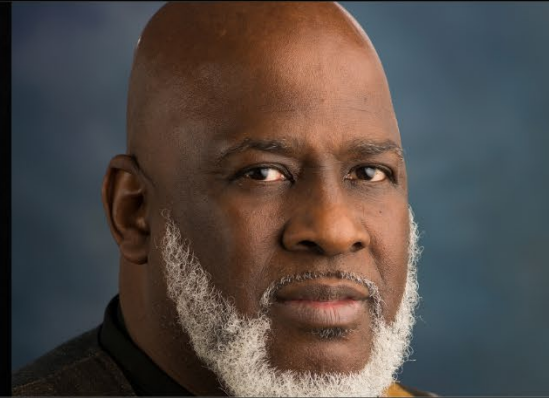

IN TIMES OF GREAT SOCIAL UNREST, WHAT ROLE DOES POLITICAL PROTEST, SOMETIMES USING VIOLENCE, PLAY IN OUR ELECTIONS? JOIN US FOR A DISCUSSION OF THE ETHICS OF POLITICAL PROTEST FEATURING:

Candice Delmas, Associate Professor of Philosophy and Political Science, Northeastern University.

Natasha Lennard, New School for Social Research, author, and journalist.

Akinyele Umoja, Professor of African American Studies, Georgia State University.

WED, SEPT 2, 2020, 3:30-4:45PM

For free/quick registration: <https://tinyurl.com/y669cl6k> or follow links at ethics.gsu.edu.

Audience Q&A will follow. Questions? Contact D.C. Hardaway, dhardaway1@gsu.edu

THESE EVENTS ARE SUPPORTED BY GEORGIA HUMANITIES AND CAMPUS PARTNERS AT GSU INCLUDING THE JEAN BEER BLUMENFELD CENTER FOR ETHICS, THE CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY, THE OFFICE OF CIVIC ENGAGEMENT, THE CENTER FOR STUDIES ON AFRICA AND ITS DIASPORA, THE DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY, THE CENTER FOR LAW, HEALTH & SOCIETY, THE GSU PROGRAM IN PHILOSOPHY, POLITICS, AND ECONOMICS.

