

I Voted

FALL 2020: ETHICS AND THE 2020 ELECTIONS

HEALTH CARE ACCESS

AND THE 2020 ELECTIONS

Access to health care is among the most controversial issues in our society. It impacts our election. There are special concerns over different opportunities for health care services among residents of the US, especially among members of marginalized communities. This event will consider how health care affects, and should affect, election policy and decisions.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2020, 3:30- 4:45PM

FOR FREE/QUICK REGISTRATION: HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/Y49GRRHC

AUDIENCE Q&A WILL FOLLOW. QUESTIONS? CONTACT D.C. HARDAWAY, DHARDAWAY1@GSU.EDU

These events are supported by Georgia Humanities and campus partners at GSU including The Jean Beer Blumenfeld Center for Ethics, The Center for Human Rights and Democracy, The Office of Civic Engagement, The Center for Studies on Africa and its Diaspora, the Department of Philosophy, the Center for Law, Health & Society, the GSU program in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics.

ETHICS.GSU.EDU

